Danny and I send our love and blessings to you. All is going well here. We presently have all of our beds full. We have 2 girls and 5 young women living downstairs of the Father's House. Upstairs are three full-time staff members with two young women who come out three days a week for healing. The Mercy House has only one empty bed, which will soon be home to a girl rescued from the sex slave industry. As always our biggest need is housing. Please continue praying for the completion of our Healing Ministry building. We need construction materials, finances and skilled laborers.

We want to share with you the testimony a precious lady who has been on Our Father's Farm receiving healing.

A testimony of the healing power of God:

I thank God for the ministry of Harvest Home and our Father's farm! I have been a healthcare professional for 32 years, and for 30 of those years I have loved my job and excelled as a nurse. Ten months ago I reached an emotional breaking point. My life had become a raging storm and I felt like a boat tossed to and fro, smashing violently against the rocks. I was despondent, depressed and relationally shut down. My elderly father was dying on my unit where I was the head nurse. The stressors of my leadership role in the workplace had taken its toll. I had become a robot going through the motions of life. My compassion and life flow had dried up. I was mentally and emotionally incapacitated. I stepped out of my nursing position in hopes of regaining my life.

In this place of desperation, God set up a divine appointment for me, and brought Rhonda Calhoun into my life. She carries the heartbeat of the Father like no one else I know, and her Voice awakens the Bride of Christ to Arise and pursue the Soon Coming King. As she spoke at a women's conference, her messages penetrated my heart with God's love for me, and as I embraced her life-giving words, I felt hope rising. I was so drawn to Jesus, this love sick King she so passionately portrayed. I could hardly wait to return to the next meeting. That weekend changed my life forever!

As she ministered to me, God showed her the raging storm and the boat smashing against the rocks, and she assured me that God himself was "frapping the boat" and would hold my life together. I had a memory from years prior that had been tormenting me for a week. Rhonda asked if she could do anything for me. I told her the memory and within 10 minutes she had me connect with God in my imagination. To my amazement, God processed and healed that memory. The torment and pain was instantly gone. God ministered life to me all weekend through her. She then invited me to come to the Father's Farm for the God Encounter and Tree of Life training and to receive healing sessions.

My Dad died on June 2 and I came to Our Father's Farm on June 4 for 10 days. God began an amazing healing and restoration process in my life. I had been a Christian for many years, I loved the Word of God, and I was actively involved in a strong local church, yet my life flow was stopped up. As a Christian, I thought I had dealt with all the trauma in my life, by confessing scripture, praying for forgiveness, and releasing those who sinned against me. I had done all the right things intellectually, but had not had anyone process the traumatic events of my life, and as a result, years later I found myself "triggered" and responding inappropriately to life situations. I realized that my life was filled with fear-based relationships and my relational circuits were off because no one had attuned to me. At the God encounter training sessions, I saw God transform people's countenances before my very eyes, as Rhonda and her team helped others process traumatic events of the past. It was amazing and the fruit was immediate.

I am currently back at the farm for a third season of healing. As a nurse I cared for many women who arrived at the hospital with physical symptoms caused by emotional pain and depression, yet left the hospital with a band-aid treatment of pain medication and antidepressants, but no one able to help them with the root issues causing the symptoms. I didn't want that for myself. In God encounters, a facilitator helps you connect to God and He brings up a memory, processes it and heals it. Only God can unravel and heal traumas from the past. I had a festering wound that God uncovered. For many years, I picked off the bad fruit and put on band-aids, and dressed the wound, believing I had dealt with it, but had really only covered it over. The Tree of Life teaching also transformed my life. It revealed the truth that I had been eating from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, but God wanted me to eat from the Tree of Life. I had worked hard trying to do everything right, to get God's approval and acceptance, working for Him instead of partnering with Him. I have now replaced my religious activity with a personal relationship with the Lord. Rhonda always says, "Choose Life." And I have finally learned how. If it's not life-giving, it's not God because He is the Source of Life and only produces life.

I thank God that He led me to Rhonda and the Harvest Home staff, who have helped me connect with God and process the traumatic events and expose the fears that caused the depression in my life, so I can return home healed and restored!

Testimony from two of the young women living in The Father's House:

I was sitting in the living room and one of my roommates was sharing about signs and wonders from God. I told her I've seen signs, but didn't know what wonders are. She asked me to get a coin so I got my purse to get a quarter and then I heard that small voice saying, "Go for the penny."

As I thought about it, the penny represented one thing—my one desire to follow GOD. I stuck the penny to the wall and prayed and declared faith to hold that penny up. I let go of the penny, and you know what happened? It fell. I heard the Holy Spirit say to pursue faith. So I placed the penny against the wall again. This time I sensed an angel. I let go of the penny and you know what happened? It stayed stuck to the wall and it stayed there for three days! That penny represented to me strong faith and freedom (Abraham Lincoln on the penny) and the one thing I desire to be with the Lord! Sara and Jenna
