

Dear Friends,

The Harvest Home team plus over 30 wonderful volunteers just completed a week of camp on Our Father's Farm. 73 children experienced the Father's unconditional love while learning they can be God's friend. It was life-changing not only for the campers, but for several of our volunteers. The week ended with families joining us for a bar-b-que. 10 children and 3 young adults were baptized in a very clean horse trough.

A special thank you to our volunteers:

From PA: Karen, Karissa, Ryan, Cody, Jeffrey (leaders). Youth group: Anna, Ashley, Lauren, Leah, Megan, Michael, Anthony, Derek, Raymond, Chris, Corban.

From Kingdom Life church in Hesston, KS: Karla Miller, Vi Jantz

From CA: Ed & Suzanne Holliday

From AL: Dianne Korneghy

From MI: Bethany, Stacy, Aaron

From OH: Jodi Horn, Corey & Hannah Shankleton, Carrie Halim

From MN: Ann Benson

From TX: Judy Rector

Testimonies

The first evening of camp I joined 10 year old Naomi who sat by herself while Cherish led worship and the kids danced and sang. "What's going on?" I asked.

She glanced up. Tears pooled in her dark brown eyes. "I don't have a safe place and I ain't ever felt God."

"Would you like me to help you connect with God?" I asked.

She nodded and buried her face in the grass. After a few minutes, she said, "I see me sitting on a cloud."

"Do you feel safe?"

She nodded. "Would you like to ask Jesus to be with you there? He's everywhere, all of the time," I said.

She nodded again. In just a few minutes, tears streamed down her face as a big smile lit up her face. "I can feel Him! He's holding me and I can feel Him! He loves me!"

I sat by and watched as this shy little girl experienced that God is real and that He loves her. She was one happy girl! To my shock, she went to the microphone and shared with the whole group how real God is.

After a water balloon "fight", the leader announced, "Whoever picks up the most balloons pieces gets an extra popsicle." The kids raced around trying to earn the coveted popsicle. Suddenly, Madeline dropped to the ground. The kids quickly gathered around her. Madeline had stepped on a bee and was in tears. Seeing her distress, the children spontaneously took the balloon pieces they had collected and gave them to Madeline. It was a beautiful sight to watch as they comforted her and prayed for her. Madeline's bee sting suddenly lost its sting.

Jennifer: When 9 year old Jennifer arrived she was afraid of everything...from bugs to people to horses. On the first day of camp, it took Jennifer about 30 minutes to find the courage to ride her horse. Once she settled into the saddle she was all smiles. With each passing day, this little girl faced her fears and found the joy that comes from being free. The highlight of her week at camp was on the last day when Jennifer courageously climbed into the water trough to be baptized. Jennifer left camp a different little girl.
